

Campsite Courtesy

When you are camping, your campsite becomes your “home away from home”. Since that is true, the following are some guidelines in order to respect that home:

1. Teach Adventurers respect for other people’s campsites by not walking through them.
2. Have Adventurers ask permission or “KNOCK” when entering another campsite.
3. Respect quiet hours. Many public places have set quiet hours. If you are at a facility that does not, set your own quiet hours and then abide by them. Remember that ADULTS need to abide by the quiet hours as well as the Adventurers.
4. Make sure that Adventurers know not to wash hands, dishes, etc. at the water spigots or lavatories. Instead, make sure there is an appropriate place provided for this at your campsite.
5. Take care not to create mud puddles at spigots by having Adventurers use water bottles or cups rather than using spigots to get drinks. Providing a water dispenser at your campsite helps alleviate this situation.
6. Respect your neighbors’ wish to enjoy the out-of-doors and leave your radios at home. Instead, listen to the birds singing! Likewise, loud and boisterous behavior is inappropriate.
7. Use showers for intended use only, not for changing clothes, etc.
8. Respect others in your cabin/tent by picking up your belongings.
9. Leave your campsite cleaner than you found it.
